

Lani the little lion cub is lonely. She thinks that having someone to play with would be a great idea, and starts a hunt across the African plain for a friend to join her game. This delightfully entertaining and educational animal adventure features nine spreads — each with lift-the-flap pop-ups and captivating characters, from dragonflies to meerkats. Children can read along and open each flap to uncover a new animal hiding behind the tall grass and other natural elements of the African landscape. There's even a mysterious leopard hiding within the pages that children will enjoy seeking as they follow the story. A glossary of African animals featured in the story is included. Lani Lion is a delightful book that children will look forward to reading again and again.
