

Lectures on the History of Joseph

George Lawson (1749-1820) was for forty-nine years the minister of the Scottish Succession church in Selkirk. He became renowned as a writer alongside his preaching, producing commentaries on Proverbs, Ruth, Esther, the life of David and this series of lectures on the life of Joseph. These lectures constitute a verse-by-verse commentary on chapters 37 to 50 of Genesis, focusing on Joseph's life but including Jacob's prophetic statements regarding his twelve sons in chapter 49. Lawson makes profound and searching observations relating Joseph's life to many aspects of Christian experience. Will be appreciated by all readers for its readability, but pastors will also prize it for its sure-footed handling of the more difficult questions relating to the events covered. First published in 1807, this edition has been completely re-typeset for issue as an eBook.
