

Spirit Lead Me Through My Fears

What do you do when you're afraid? Especially when your fear comes at all times throughout the day. Do you ignore it? Let it take over your mind? This is the story of a child who faces many fears but is led by Spirit, a special friend who lives inside the belly. As each event occurs, the child is reminded that Spirit is near and that there is no reason to be afraid. One day, the child has an encounter that shifts their confidence and leaves them knowing that authority lives within. Written to inspire young children to trust God and know that there is a friend in Jesus; yet its scriptures will have any reader's heart changed forever.
