

Waking Up Wendell

EARLY IN THE MORNING, a little bird at #1 Fish Street hops out of her nest, takes a deep breath, and begins to sing a very loud and whistle song, TWEEEEEEET-TWEEEEEEET-TA-TA-TA-TWEEEEEEET-TWEEEEEEET! So starts the story of how a chain of events results in everyone on one street waking up. The bird's song awakens Mr. Krudwig at #2 Fish Street, whose grumbling wakes up Leopold, his dog, who barks RAPPITYRAPPITY-RAP RAPPITY-RAPPITY-RAP ... and wakes up Mrs. Musky, at #3 Fish Street. The antics go on and on until, finally, Lilah Halls singing in the shower at #9 awakens the last person left who is still asleep, none other than the littlest resident at #10 Fish Street: baby Wendell Willamore. From the Hardcover edition.
